

Authors' Biodata

Tho Lai Hoong

He obtained a Bachelor of Science with (Hons) from Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM) in 1981. His major areas of study include physics, mathematics, geophysics and geology. He has 18 years of teaching experience and has been writing books related to science since 1988. He is the author of the textbooks in Malaysia since 1991 as well as the textbooks in Singapore since 1997. He also writes textbooks used for the public and international schools in Jordan, Pakistan, and Trinidad and Tobago. Based on the information on the OCLC World Cat * Identities website, he has written 40 series of publications and 83 textbooks or guidebooks in two languages. The books are available in 109 libraries around the world. Currently, he is a full-time writer and multimedia designer for teaching and learning science in the 21st century with special features such as STEM, Theory of Knowledge, International-mindedness, Nature of Science and so on.

Che Ahamad bin Daud

He obtained a Teaching Certificate from Maktab Perguruan Kinta, Ipoh in 1984 and a Bachelor of Science (Biology) from Universiti Pendidikan Sultan Idris (UPSI) in 2002. He received the UPSI Chancellor Gold Medal Award in 2002. He also won the Innovative Teacher Award for the state of Kedah in 2012 and he was a runner-up at the national level. He has 30 years of experience teaching in science and he is a Master Teacher for science since 2009. Currently, he is teaching in Kolej Vokasional Kulim, Kedah.